OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT POLICY

Front Fixed-Income is an active non-UCITS fund whose objective is to gain maximum long-term profit for a relatively low risk by efficiently diversifying funds in accordance with the Finnish Act on Common Funds and the rules of the Fund. The Fund invests globally in the Fixed-Income markets. Regardless of the market situation, all of the Fund's assets are invested in interest products. The Fund does not invest in stock markets. The weighting of the different interest segments in the investment portfolio is based on our market view and economic view.

In its investments, the Fund takes moderate risks on the interest markets. The Fund may invest a maximum of 50% of its assets in high-risk so-called high yield corporate loans as well as debt or investment instruments on developing markets that invest in said loans. In its investment operations, the Fund uses investment instruments that are given in euros or hedged.

The investment products used by the Fund are mainly ETF and ETN funds subject to public trading, or equivalent securities, that follow the development of interest markets.

The Fund is an alternative investment fund in accordance with the Act on Alternative Investment Funds Managers (162/2014) and a special common fund in accordance with the Act on Common Funds (48/1999), which may deviate from the common rules and restrictions applicable to investment funds in accordance with the Act on Common Funds, such as restrictions pertaining to investments and diversification. As a special common fund, Front Interest may invest a maximum of 60% of the fund's assets in one target.

The Fund is suitable for investors whose investment horizon is relatively short, however at least one year, and who wish to take only a minor risk on their investments.

RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

The Fund's risk category is based on the value fluctuation of the Fund unit in the last five years. The current risk category of the investment fund is 3, which means that the value development of a fund unit involves a moderate risk.

A higher number usually indicates a greater fluctuation in the value of the Fund. In this case, both the profit potential and the risk potential are higher. The lower the number, the lower the risk. However, not even the lowest risk category (1) is completely devoid of risk. It is also noteworthy that a lower risk and profit development is not necessarily a good indication of the future development of the Fund. Therefore, the risk category of the Fund will not necessarily remain unchanged; instead, it may vary over time.

It is worth noting that no investment is entirely devoid of risk, and it is not possible on the basis of the Fund's risk category to paint a fully reliable picture of the Fund's future risk category, as it does not necessarily take into account certain unforeseen events.

The single greatest factor affecting the value of a fund unit in the short term is changes in the general interest rate level and the credit risk premiums paid by issuers. Credit risk refers to the uncertainty linked to the financial standing of debt instrument issuers. A credit risk affects the value of the Fund's interest investments when the issuer's credit rating changes or credit surcharges change generally on the market.

The ETF funds in which the Fund invests also invest in interest-bearing instruments in developing markets where political risks may have a significant effect on the yield of the investments. Front Asset Management Ltd's active fund management style may also materially affect the Fund's value, especially when compared to other similar products.
